Meals on Wheels

Overview

The aim of the Meals on Wheels service is to support senior citizens and other persons who are still living in their own home but are unable to prepare a meal.

What you'll get

One meal per day, which is delivered chilled so that the meal can be consumed at one's own convenience. It is to be ensured that such meals must be heated prior of being consumed. The menu offers various choices of meals for 14 consecutive days. Each daily meal consists of a starter, main course and a dessert.

Each applicant is subject to an assessment by care professionals so that it will be ensured that this service is being provided to those persons who really need it.

Eligibility

General eligibility criteria:

- A senior citizen over 60 years of age; or
- A person under 60 years of age holding a valid Special Identity Card issued by the Commission for the Rights of Persons with Disability (CRPD)
